

7th November 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

WOOHOO... MONDAY
13TH NOVEMBER IS
ODD SOCKS DAY!

Next week, is National Anti-Bullying Week and on Monday 13th November, we will be taking part in 'Odd Socks Day', in celebration of the diversity of the world we live in. We would love the children to come to school in odd socks on this day to launch our Anti-Bullying week. There is no donation required for this event. During this week, we will be focussing on Anti-Bullying across the school, with children taking part in different activities in class.

Later that week, on Friday 17th November, we will be supporting BBC Children in Need and are inviting pupils to come to school in Spotty/Pudsey Mufti for a suggested donation of £1. This does not have to be the official Pudsey merchandise – you and your child are more than welcome to use your 'artistic skills' to create their own spotty/Pudsey inspired outfit, or even simply wear spotty socks - the choice is yours! So have a look in the wardrobe and see just how spotty they can make themselves!

We are looking forward to having a couple of fantastic colourful days helping to raise money and awareness for such worthy causes. Thank you in advance for your support.

Kind Regards

Jenny Appleby
Inclusion Manager

Deepa Parker
PSHE Subject Lead